QA Policy

Tranvåg Maritime AS, founded in late 2008, provides support and quality–services and products to our clients. We will achieve this by stimulating the workplace environment and by creating a culture where excellence and continuous improvement are a way of life.

We will emphasize on achieving a working environment that should encourage well–being, job satisfaction and motivation. And that condition, activities and tasks are planned, organized, executed, and verified under applicable legislations and standards, customers’ requirements, as well as Tranvåg Maritime AS own internal requirements.

Tranvåg Maritime AS’s strength is our close relationships with the industry and our clients, which give us the ability to continuous, develop products to further our niche strategy.

Tranvåg Maritime AS primary purpose is to provide a wide range of independent course and training services to enhance the professional standing and knowledge, according to the highest standards and applicable regulations.

This will we achieve by ensuring that properly designed courses and programs being offered, contain clear objectives and results, delivered by qualified instructors, and evaluated and improved in line with market demands and developments.

Our QA system should provide for:

- Agreed standards being met, as compliance with relevant rules and regulations
- Recommended codes, guidelines and standards being taken into account
- The personnel's understanding of what is expected of them and why
- Enhancing a proactive way of thinking
